St. Patrick's Ball.

Jim Wiggins, the great leader of the German in Empire, and boss all round amusement artist of that town will give a St. Patrick's Day Domino party on the 17th. He has made preparations for the free transportation of guests, and a big feed will be on tap at Mrs. Kohle's. Tickets $1.00. A good time is guaranteed or money refunded.

Parties desiring Matzos, please leave orders with A. Jacobs, before March 10.

From this on I will keep 10 varieties of apple trees that will keep from March to May, such as will sell in San Francisco by the car load when California apples are going out of season. I will do my own grafting and bring the prices down. In Spring I will condense from publications East and West the cheapest and best way to abate and destroy fruit pests. I have elms and other shade trees, roses and general nursery supplies.

ALL SORTS.

Stall fed beef at Rosser & Muller's.

Theodore Winters of Washoe was in Carson yesterday.

Senator Gignoux and wife were visiting Carson yesterday.

Mr. Bray is getting but scant consolation from his two organs.

The Tribune has just learned of the fate of Assembly Bill No. 77.

It's a cold day in France now when they don't make a new cabinet.

Pardee, the non-partisan candidate for Mayor, was elected in Oakland yesterday.

The French Chamber of Deputies has given the government a vote of confidence.

It was John McCrimmon's nephew and not his brother who died in Oakland recently.

The case against Henry Collier, charged with rape in Virginia City, has been dismissed.

Prof. Hildebrand, the piano tuner, will be in the city the first and third Monday in each month.

Judge Belknap arrived in Carson yesterday very much improved in health and was warmly greeted by his old friends.

Edwin J. Jones was today appointed a Commissioner of Deeds for Nevada, to reside at Boston, Mass., by Governor Cole.

The arrival of Spring has been postponed until further notice. The Turkish Bath Co. however, will reach here this evening.

The attention of the Tribune is called to the fact that it is not necessary for the APPEAL or any other paper to bulldoze the County Commissioners to enable them to enforce the law.

Some of our Nevada exchanges remind us of what the lamented Forbes said of a contemporary which was running a patent outside. He said half of it was printed in Chicago and the other half was half printed in Winnipeg.

Arrest of McWhirter's Slayers.

San Francisco, March 14.—Richard S. Heath, son of the late General Heath of this city, was arrested here last night for the murder of Louis B. McWhirter in Fresno last August. Fred W. Polley, now in jail in Fresno for vagrancy, is also charged with the same crime. McWhirter was a lawyer and took a prominent part in the politics of that town.

Fresno, March 14.—This city is greatly excited at the news of the arrest of McWhirter's murderers. The arrest of Heath in San Francisco was a great surprise, though he has long been suspected. The Grand Jury is now in session here, and it is understood, will return indictments against Heath and Polley. It is believed that Heath will plead insanity as a defense. The name of the third man to be arrested is not known, but it is said he will be captured before night.

San Francisco, March 14.—Crittenden Thornton, Mrs. McWhirter's attorney, said he was not surprised at the arrest of Heath and Polley. He said: "These men were but the catpaws of others more powerful, and I expect to see their political and financial reputations in this State shattered in a very short time."

Fatal Mining Explosion.

Kansas City, March 14.—A special from McAllister says that the mine of the Chocataw Coal Company at Anderson is reported to have suffered an explosion this morning. Nine men were killed and several dangerously injured.

The explosion was caused by a shot fired by some person unknown. There were eighteen men in the mine at the time, all of whom were firing shots. Of these nine were killed outright and eight so badly burned that they will probably die. The dead and injured are mostly Italians. The dead were taken from the mine. So far John McFadden, John Scanlan, W. E. Warner, Ernest Matthews, Warren Love and Jules Trolori have been identified. The other dead are not identified.

Murder and Suicide.

Detroit, March 14.—A bloody tragedy took place last night in a disreputable house on Gratiot avenue, in this city. Joseph Esser, shot and badly wounded Annie Shea, one of the inmates of the house, and then blew out his own brains. The shooting was the result of frequent quarrels. The girl may recover.

ENFORCING THE LAW.

County Officers Must be Content With Their Salaries.

Yesterday Mr. Bray called on Commissioner Muller and asked him if he proposed to prevent him from doing any county work.

"I have examined the law," said Mr. Muller, "and Mr. Petersen has examined it, and it says very plainly that no county officer can be interested directly or indirectly in any work done for the county. The District Attorney takes the same view and the Auditor says plainly that he will not audit any more county bills from you except your salary as provided for by law."

"Haven't I been doing the work well?" didn't the Grand Jury say I did the work well and reasonably?"

"Yes," said Commissioner Muller, "the Grand Jury said the work was done well and cheaply and it also said you had no legal right to do it. Its the legality of the work that we are talking about."

"Since my attention was called to the law I am satisfied we have but one course to pursue and that is to obey the law. We are elected by the people to see that the law shall be respected. Mr. Petersen and myself have examined the law and taken legal advice and we are satisfied that not only you are prevented from doing work on the roads, but it is illegal for me to sell a pound of sugar to the county or Mr. Petersen to rent a horse for road work or to sell the county a bale of hay. This is the law and until the law is changed it will be enforced just as it stands on the statute books."

Mr. Bray also had a talk with Auditor Ellis who said the law was perfectly plain and he should respect the law and his oath of office. When Mr. Bray puts in his bill for work already done this month on the road its payment will be refused and if he considers he is inside the law he has his legal remedy by a suit of mandamus, at which time the whole matter can be legally tested. Yesterday morning Mr. Williams who was doing some work on the roads for the county found it hard to get horses and finally offered to rent them from Commissioner Petersen. Mr. Petersen learning that the horses were wanted for road work refused to let them be used on the grounds that it made him an interested party in the contract. The same taken by the new county officials is approved by nine-tenths of the taxpayers in this city.

Senator Jones and Silver.

New York, March 14.—Senator Jones, of Nevada, has been interviewed. He said: "I do not think the Sherman Act will be repealed soon. If it should be repealed, it will be a compromise, and something like the Bland bill will be substituted. Why? One should study the composition of the Senate Finance Committee with a majority of free silver Democrats."

"Then you do not think an extra session will be called to meet the present financial situation?" "No, I do not. What good would it do? I do not think the bill could be passed in the Senate entirely suspending the coinage of silver. It is useless to try it in my opinion."

Increased Mail Service.

On next Sunday will commence double mail service between Reno and California. There will be two mails a day each way. The outgoing mails will close at the Reno office at 7:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. There will be distributing pouches on both trains for way stations. Orders to that effect have been received by Postmaster Kraus.

A Test Case.

The APPEAL is informed that Commissioner Bray proposes to make a test case of a claim against the County.

When the Board refuses to allow the bill he will bring suit in the District Court with Coffin and Summerfield as his attorneys. This will result in a legal disposition of the question and settle it forever.

Music in the Air.

Call and inspect the new sheet music arriving daily at Cagwin and Notewares.

The firm has arranged to have consignments of popular songs to instrumental music sent up from San Francisco as soon as issued by the publishers and solicit an examination of it by the musical public.

Charles Blethen will have a phonograph at Cagwin and Notewares today.

A Bloody Deed.

Chicago, Ill., March 14.—An unusually bloody attempt at murder occurred last night at 6674 Maryland avenue in this city. B. S. Keyes, a wealthy contractor, came home somewhat under the influence of liquor and threw his overcoat on the bed where his wife was lying sick. She asked him to take it off and he refused angrily.

Then Mrs. John Weil, a neighbor who was attending the sick woman, remonstrated with the husband, who went into another room and secured a revolver. Returning, he fired at Mrs. Weil, who ran screaming into another room. She was felled by Keyes, who shot her in the back. His wife had arisen from bed, and, just as he shot Mrs. Weil, grappled with him.

He shook her off and, placing the revolver close to her body, shot her just above the hips. Believing he had killed her, he then shot himself through the breast near the heart. Neighbors heard the shots and came hurrying in, to find Mrs. Keyes dying and her husband in his last throes. The police patrol took Keyes to the City Hospital, the two women remaining at the house.

A Heavy Subject for Debate.

A week from next Friday there will be a debate in a high school class, with the subject, "Shall we have Free Coinage?"

Yesterday a couple of young ladies who were among the list of speakers on the negative side, called at the APPEAL office to get data on which to make a talk. They were informed that the editor of the APPEAL knew of no argument on the negative side of the question, but that they might be able to get what they wanted by calling on our contemporaries across the street.

The school children who take part in the debate average about fifteen years of age and it seems quite a task for children of that age to be called on to debate questions which for years have puzzled the leading financiers of the U. S. Senate. Better give them something easier, for instance:

"Why can't an oyster climb a cottonwood tree?"

"Oh! I See."

"Going to start a saloon in the country?" asked a citizen of a man loading an express wagon with a keg of beer, several demijohns and about a dozen small flasks.

"No I'm going to take Lawrence Elrod out fishing."

"Oh! I See."

Funeral of Felix Larichetiere.

Yesterday, Felix Larichetiere, who died suddenly at the Excelsior House the night before, was buried from the Catholic Church. He was for some time a partner of Edward Toupin. There was a large attendance of friends and countrymen at the funeral.

Pasturage.

On the Kirnan ranches, which contain over 400 acres situate one-half a mile from town. Milk cows taken and delivered daily. Terms $2 a month. Season begins April 1st.

WILLIAM SMYTH,
Lessee.

A Turkish Bath.

People who do not know the delights of a Turkish Bath should go to the Opera House this evening and take it in. The serpentine dancing is alone worth the price admission and the music is said to be something absolutely delightful.

St. Patrick's Ball.

The St. Patrick's Ball will come off on Friday evening at Odd Fellows Hall. Elaborate preparations are being made for the affair, and a fine supper will be spread after the dancing. Tickets 50 cents.

Miss Maggie Moody departed for her home in Oakland last night. Miss Moody is a first-class compositor and the best wishes of the craft go with her.
